

IBS-Special Cleaner EL/Extra

Description

Ideally for applications where the fast evaporation without residues of the cleaning agent should guaranteed the quick further processing of the workpiece.

Areas of application

Food industry (with NSF K1 registration), precision mechanics, pump repairs, electric workshop, electric motor workshops.

For the commercial use as solvent for the industrials parts cleaning and surface degreasing.

Application benefits

- excellent cleaning effect
- fast evaporation without residues for the quick further processing of the workpiece — evaporation number VZ 90 (Aether = 1)
- almost odourless (mild)
- suitable for the use in electric workshop and for the cleaning of energized parts
- no metal corrosion — for all court surfaces
- no electrical conductivity — puncture of voltage > 70 kV/cm, dry up to 200kV/cm
- classification according to BetrSichV (German Health and Safety at Work Regulations) — none
- flashing point — 61°C
- skin friendliness — independent report on skin-friendliness is available
- several approvals available
- pH-value — water-based extract neutral

Environment / Disposal

IBS Scherer GmbH is registered as a waste management facility according to § 52 paragraph 1 KrW/AbfG (Life Cycle Management Law / Waste Management Law) with the waste management agencies in all federal states. In the IBS disposal cycle, the used IBS special cleaning agent (junk goods) can be returned upon delivery of a new drum.

With skin health assessment! Skin friendliness — independent report on skin-friendliness is available.

Available packaging sizes

